TDS60N Direct Vent Gas Stove

All of Timberwolf's Cast Iron Series Gas Stoves boast solid performance and impressive heating efficiencies. Gas Stoves add more than just a reliable heating source to a home, their classic design never goes out of style. The log set and brightly glowing ember bed can be viewed through the European styled ceramic glass, each unit featuring unique curving arches that bring to mind old-world charm. Their large viewing area is as impressive as their heating power. These stoves will provide a lifetime of enjoyable comfort and style.
